

Geography is learning about Earth’s water, land and living things.

Maps show us where things are and can help us to get to them.

We are word collectors:

key	something that helps you locate things of importance.
area	a part of the world or the measurement of a surface.
human feature	things that are made or built by humans.
physical feature	Things that are on Earth naturally.

Aerial photo: viewing from above.