This enquiry is focussed on Shabbat – the day of rest in the Jewish religion. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> The Jewish Holy books (Tenakh) contain core beliefs and stories including the Creation Story in which God creates the world in six days and rests on the seventh – the Sabbath. The Jewish weeks start on a Sunday, Saturday is the 7th day, the day of rest – Shabbat. One of the 10 commandments is to ‘Honour the Sabbath’. Shabbat (Sabbath) is celebrated both in the home and the synagogue and the main requirement is that no work should be attempted from sunset on Friday until sunset on Saturday. The start of Shabbat is marked with a special meal and ceremony in the home. When worshipping, Jews wear a skull cap called a kippah. This is usually worn by men as a sign of respect to God. 		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Creation Story found in Genesis The different Jewish responses to the day of rest and the definition of ‘work’ Worship – How do Jews mark the Sabbath? 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Why might it be a good idea to have a day away from work? What other things could we think about on this day? What do Jews thanks God for on this day? What do I have to be thankful for?
